

Proposed Allowable Activities Under the DOE Consolidated Transportation Grant

Program	Program Summary	Allowable and Unallowable Activities
Proposed DOE Consolidated Transportation Grant.	Provide financial assistance to States and Tribes to support planning, coordination, and emergency management and safe transportation activities associated with DOE radioactive materials shipments through their jurisdictions.	Activities must be performed in accordance with a submitted State or Tribal plan that demonstrates: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ How the proposed activity will further DOE's goal of safe, efficient transportation ◆ How the State or Tribe proposes to enhance first responders' training and awareness of DOE materials ◆ How the State or Tribe proposes to leverage funding and activities provided under other, related federal agency programs (e.g., assessments of flow patterns of hazardous materials and local response capabilities, and conduct of emergency response under DOT/HMEP; training provided under DOT/HMEP, SARA Title III; or DOT/MCSAP) ◆ Provisions for evaluation. Grants may be used to cover staff, travel, and other necessary and reasonable costs allocable to the approved State or Tribal plan including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Overall planning and coordination, including planning and coordination with DOT road improvement programs, and participation in DOE transportation and regional planning meetings concerning specific shipments, protocols, and operational issues such as shipment routing ◆ Planning and training assessment activities and delivery and monitoring of training and exercises both for emergency response and for inspection and enforcement of enhanced inspection standards ◆ Enhancement of existing emergency response and inspection plans ◆ Coordination with other State, Tribal, and local jurisdictions and development or enhancement of mutual aid agreements with neighboring jurisdictions ◆ Participation in technical assistance activities, including peer exchanges ◆ Implementation of approved protocols ◆ Obtaining access to DOE data and systems (equipment and phone links) for material flow information and shipment tracking ◆ Program data acquisition, storage, analysis and evaluation ◆ Planning and implementation of public information programs ◆ Training-related equipment and other justifiable equipment purchases.

Predecisional Draft, July 1999